FOREWORD

The staff of the CHIEFTAIN has tried to bring into focus vividly an annual representative of college life and academic work. In years to come, it is our sincere hope that by glancing through these pages, the happy and cherished days at West Georgia can be recalled.

The Editors proudly present the 1946 CHIEFTAIN.

DEDICATION

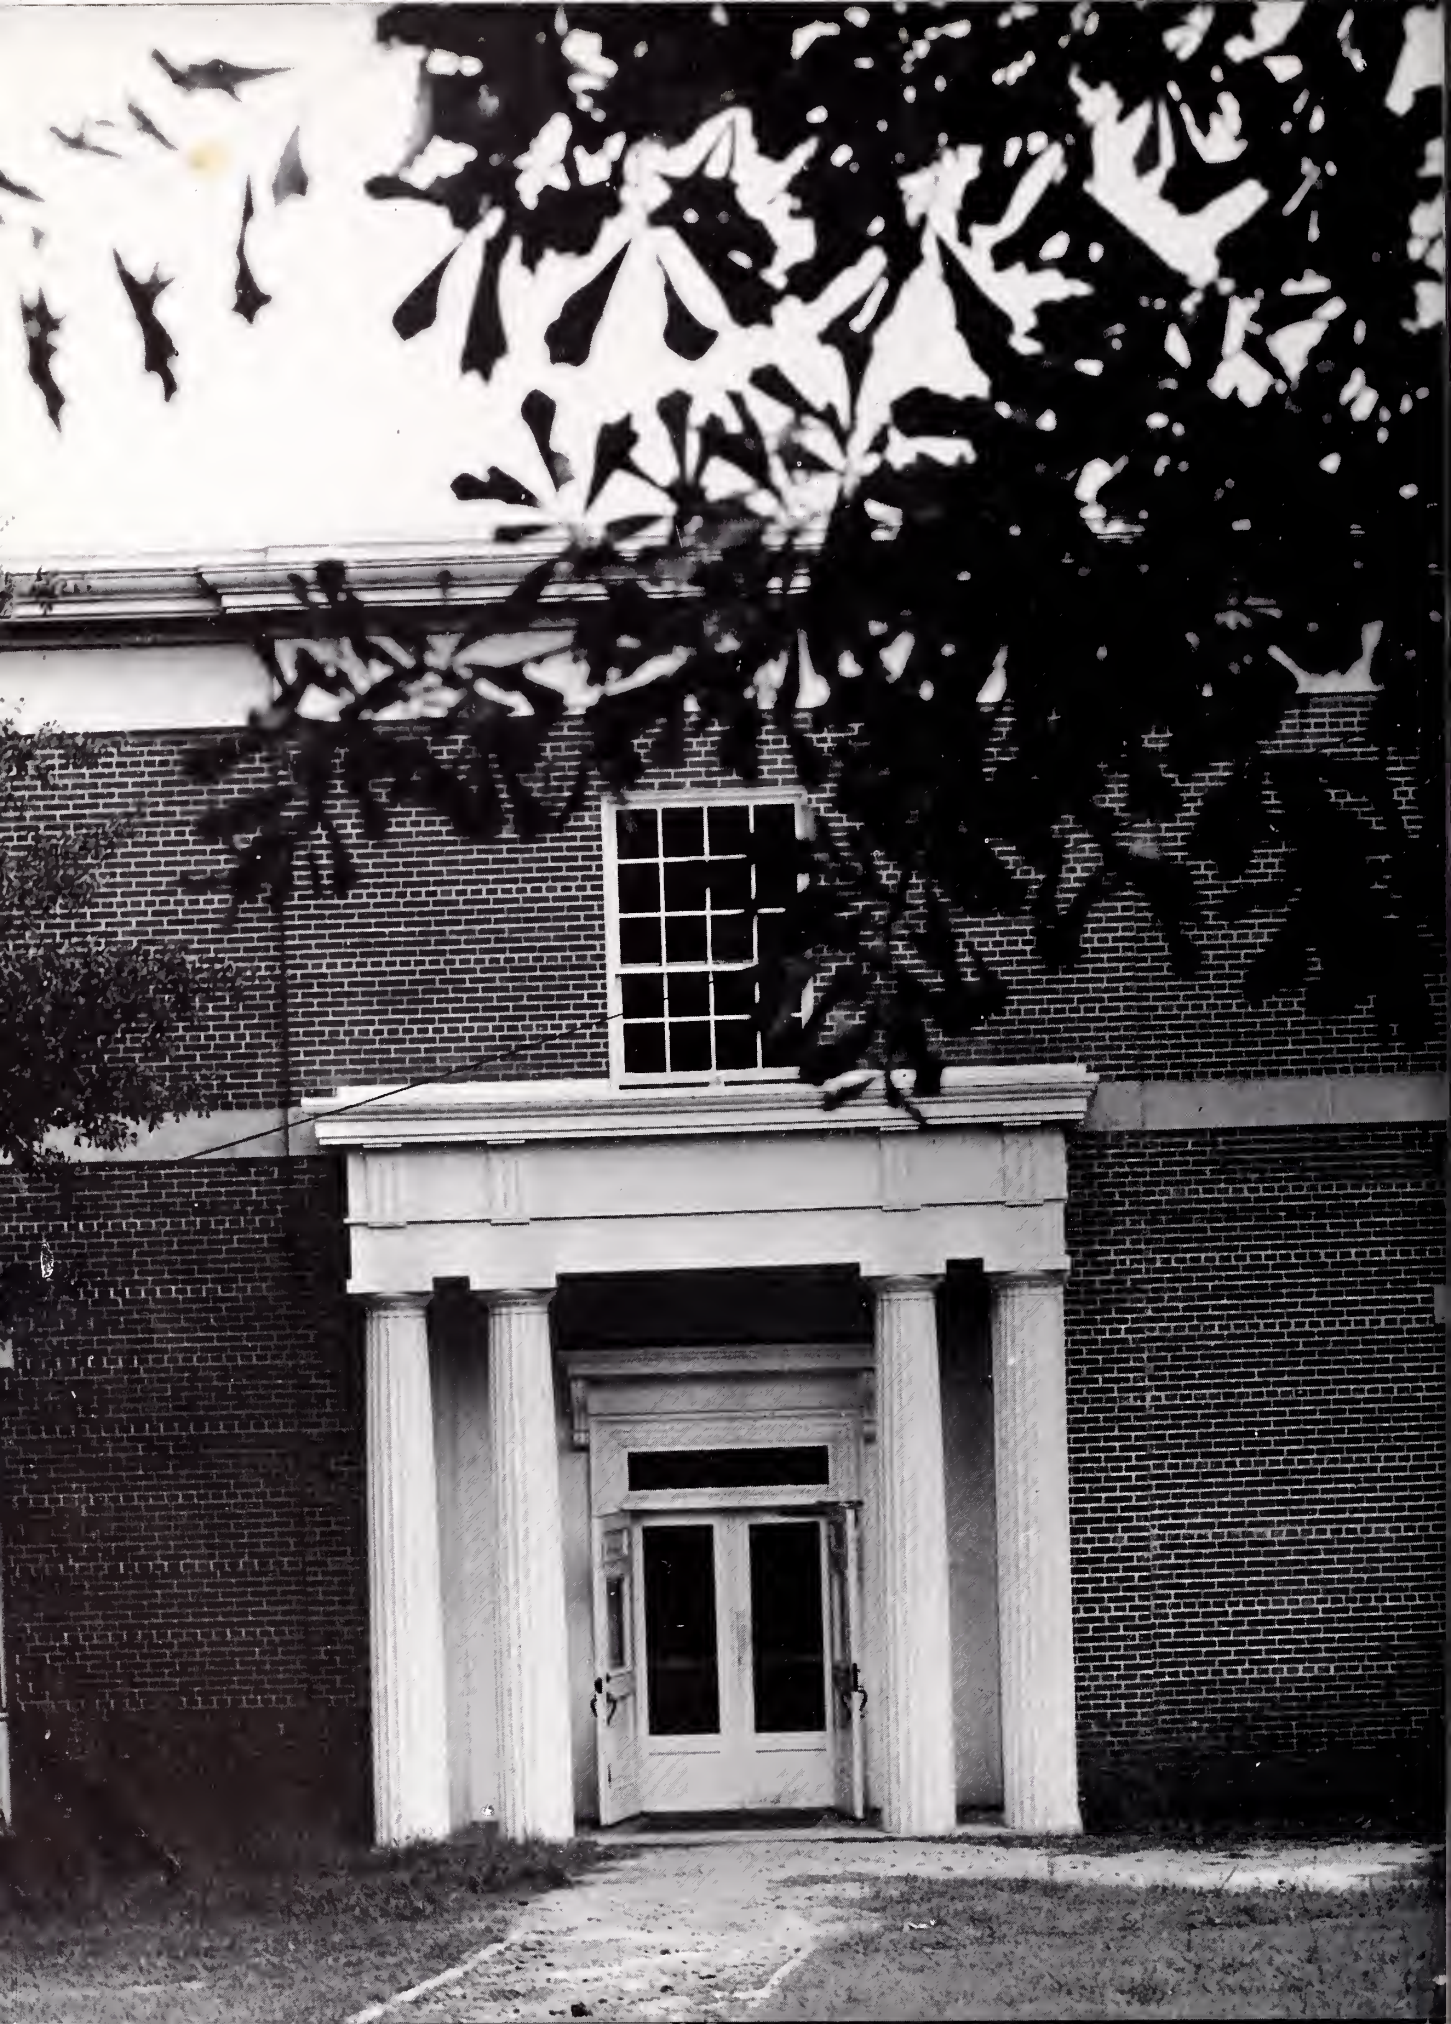

To MISS ANNIE BELL WEAVER, our Librarian, for her charm and graciousness, for her keen interest in students, and ever-ready willingness to help them, and for her sincere devotion to the college, the 1946 CHIEFTAIN in gratefully dedicated.

A CAPELLA CHOIR

The W.G.C. A Capella Choir filled engagements in a number of the churches of Carrollton and neighboring cities.

Miss Woodruff is ably assisted in the conducting of rehearsals and in planning the year's activities by an executive board chosen from among the choir members.

Caroling at Christmas time, singing for special occasions at college, and presenting a special program for the Rotary International Convention in Atlanta rounded out a year complete with activity.

The Dramatics Club is composed of those students who are interested and show ability in both acting and producing plays. The club usually gives two or three evening programs on the campus during the year, the purpose being to develop more initiative and skill in dramatic art.

LEADING

Nearly one hundred students tried out for the Dramatics Club during the fall quarter. The number accepted was well over fifty. From these the six officers were elected.

ADVERTISING

The club was fortunate in having members interested in graphic arts and the mechanics of staging and advertising plays.

ACTING

From time to time the club presents short plays and skits concerning school life and work.

The Zeta Sigma Pi sponsors Stunt Night, formal banquet, news in Chapel, selling of peace bonds, and publishes quarterly for the Student Body a newspaper which is a summary of the activities of the club.

PANELS

This year the Zeta Sigma Pi was divided into three sections. One of these was a Book Section working under Miss Chute's direction.

A second section held discussions of current social and political problems. The United Nations' Organization and the United Nations' Charter were among the interesting subjects considered.

A third section, with Dr. Clark as advisor, devoted its time to debating such timely and controversial matters as compulsory military training and socialized medicine.

BOYS' SPORTS

VARSITY BASKETBALL

The West Georgia Braves, playing their first full schedule since pre-war days, turned in one of their best seasons in 1946. The team gained third place in the State Tournament, placed Captain Paul Rogers and Ray Jones on the All-State team, and won a big majority of its games against generally strong competition.

The excellent record compiled is all the more remarkable when viewed in the light of material which greeted Coach Clark for the first practice session. Only Ray Jones, Clyde Gordon, and Denson Yates had played enough ball previously to be considered varsity material. Prospects were brightened considerably, however, with the opening of the winter quarter when Rogers and Bill Reid entered college. Rogers had played at West Georgia in 1941 before entering the Army Air Forces and was voted the best junior college player that year in Georgia. He was quickly elected Captain and proved an inspiring leader throughout the season. Gordon and Reid developed into dependable guards, with Gordon a particularly fast man with a good eye for the basket. Reid's floor game and work on rebounds were great assets to the team. Jones and Yates at forward positions composed a high scoring pair with speed and aggressiveness. Rogers led the team in scoring with an average of about 18 points a game, with Jones averaging about 16 for the runner-up position. When at his best Yates could not be stopped. The team as a whole made a very favorable impression at the State tournament, both for playing ability and sportsmanship.

INTRAMURALS

Inasmuch as basketball has been the only intercollegiate sport for men at West Georgia during 1945-1946, much emphasis has been placed on intramural activity. This has been carried out in conjunction with the physical education program and been successful.

TOUCH-FOOTBALL

The first intramural sport of the year was touch football. Upon the arrival of Coach Clark in the middle of October teams were organized on the basis of classes and dormitories and much rivalry accompanied the fast and well-played games. The football league was disbanded at Thanksgiving at which time all participating players voted upon an All-Star team. The votes were tallied by Coach Clark and the following men were named for the first team: Clyde Gordon, Milton McLaney, Ed Johnson, Mac Griffith, Sherman Lindsey, Louis Adams, Bill Talley, England Beasley, Ray Jones, Wayne Gammon. Those making the second team were Jerry Stinson, Ray Miller, W. Mitchell, Riley Frost, Body Clup, Bob Anderson, Bob Davie, Clark Fincher, Chas. Smith, and Leonard McKibben. Those receiving honorable mention were Bill Martin, Alonzo McCain, Dave Barrow, Tom Price, Jimmy Gentry, Clarence Salman, Willis Swint, Vincent Estes, Denson Yates, Warren Moses, and Paul Counts.

SOCCER

Following the football season, two weeks of soccer play were squeezed in before bad weather made outside games impossible. Though new to the game, most of the West Georgia boys took to it readily and enjoyed it after mastering fundamentals well enough to make scrimmages interesting.

BASKETBALL

Many of the fellows had played little or no basketball before coming to West Georgia, but the long winter season gave them an opportunity to grasp the necessary fundamentals and many fine games were played. Several preliminary games were played on evenings when varsity matches were scheduled. The usual contests between classes and barracks were played with much zest and rivalry.

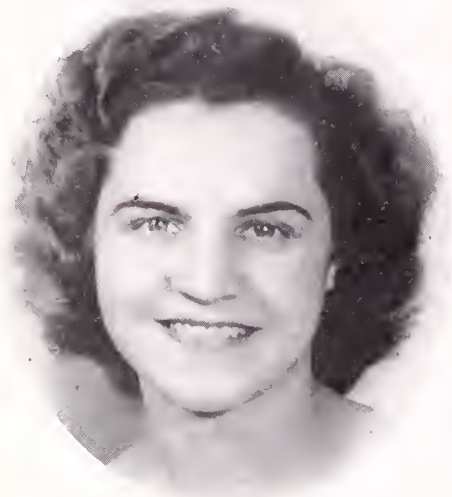

Chosen for the All-Star teams by the players and Coach Clark were: Nesbit, Davie, Frost, Swint, and Arrington. The second team was composed of Griffith, C. Smith, Sanders, Shankle, and McCain. Receiving honorable mention were H. Smith, Miller, and Talley.

SPRING SPORTS

At the time when this is written spring sports are still in the future but they will consist of intramural competition in track, soft-ball, ball, baseball and tennis.

Queen of May

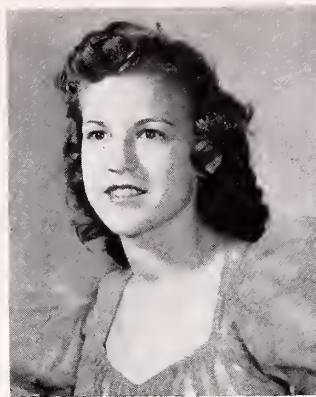

MAY DAY

This is a day when we see a beautiful Queen emerge to reign over her court, accompanied by a flow of music and a host of lovely ladies bearing arms of multi-colored flowers. The President comes forth and crowns the Queen of May, and then we see gayfully dressed people step lightly from their places and dance to the glory of May Day.

Highway 27 — Between Carrollton and Bremen

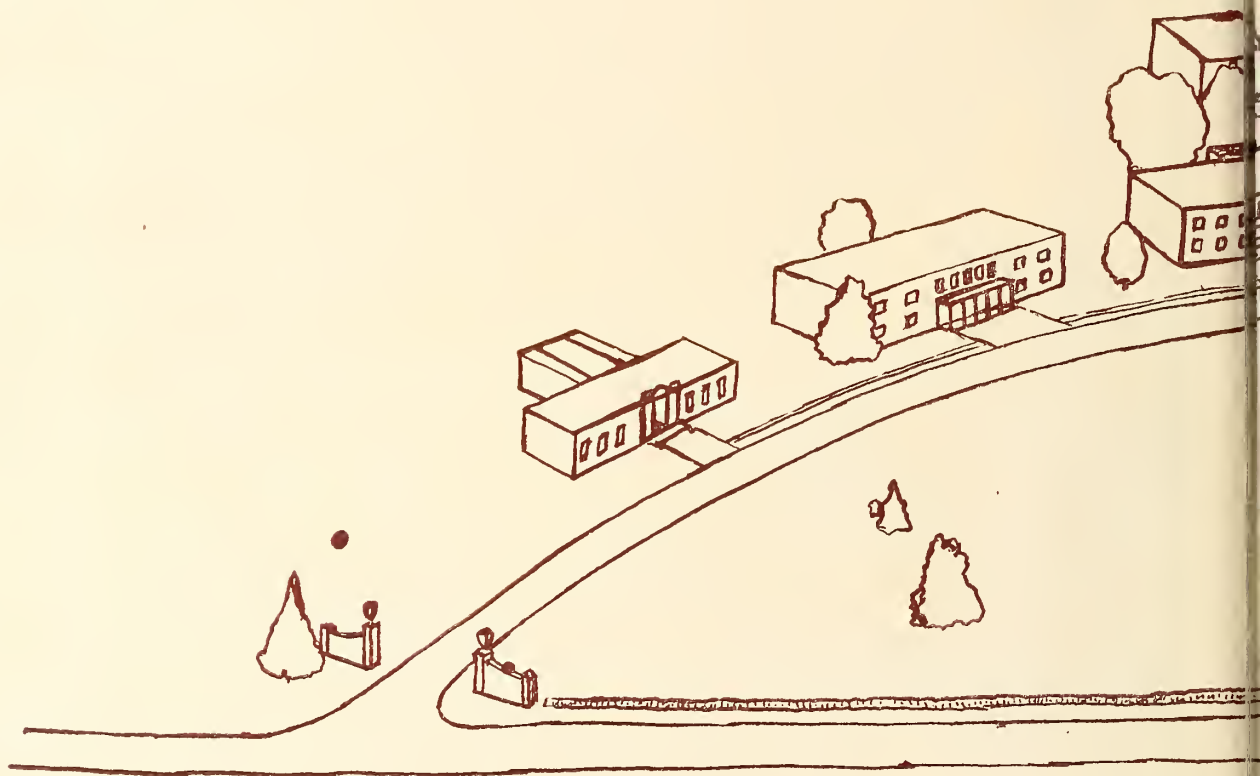

The background of the entire page is a dramatic, high-contrast black and white illustration. It depicts a vast, cloudy sky. In the foreground, there are dark silhouettes of trees and a couple standing together, holding hands. To the right, a small building with a dome is visible. The overall mood is romantic and elegant.
